Hong Kong Tatler partnered with The OUTNET for the third edition of its private tours of Art Basel Hong Kong. Hong Kong Tatler's managing director and chief creative officer, Sean Fitzpatrick, made a brief opening address before the tours started, this year, the tour was led by Ralph Taylor, Global Head of Post-War & Contemporary Art at Bonham's, Marcello Kwan, Senior Specialist of Asian Contemporary Art at Christie's and Constanze Kubern, the founder and managing director of her eponymous art advisory firm, who took our select group of VIPs through the highly anticipated fair for a preview of the artworks on show. Afterwards, guests gathered at the Hong Kong Tatler booth where they enjoyed champagne and canapés.
